DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The affidavit under 37 CFR 1.132 filed 18 April 2006 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1, 3, 4 and 6-10 based upon 35 USC 102(a) or (e) as set forth in the last Office action. Please refer to the Response to Arguments section below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 3, 4 and 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) or 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reich et al US006514131B1. Please refer to the entire document, and especially to figures 1, 2 and their descriptions. Without further defining limitations, the examiner considers that the mouth of the inlet fitting is situated "close" to the rear wall of the chamber.

Art Unit: 3723

The applied reference has a common assignee and inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reich et al US006514131B1. '131 discloses that the mouth of the inlet fitting is situated in the chamber, but does not disclose whether the mouth is "close" to the rear wall of the chamber. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have positioned the mouth of the inlet fitting close to the rear wall, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70. Here, applicant has disclosed that the position of the mouth ensures uniform depositing of dust in the chamber. It is the examiner's position that lacking evidence to the contrary, the position of the mouth anywhere within the dust chamber would ensure uniform depositing, and that placing the mouth anywhere within the chamber involves only routine skill in the art.

6. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Reich et al US006514131B1 in view of Rick et al, US005925172A .

The applied reference has a common assignee and inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(l)(1) and § 706.02(l)(2).

7. '131 discloses that the exhaust opening is covered by a grating but not that the grating is louvered. '172, in an air filter device, teaches providing the exhaust opening with a louvered grating, that allows the exhaust to be directed in a specific direction. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to have provided '131 with a grating having louvered openings as taught by '172, figure 3 and column 6, lines 15-17, to direct air flow away from the tool operator.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 18 April 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant filed an affidavit under 37 CFR 1.131/132 in an attempt to overcome the rejection of claims 1, 3, 4 and 6-10 under 35 USC 102(a) or (e), by providing evidence purported to show that the invention was the work of applicant. However, the evidence disclosed shows that the pending invention is the work of applicant, and does not support that the invention of 6,514,131 is the work of applicant. '131 has a filing date of 10 January 2001. The evidence provided by applicant has a date of 11 July 2002, when the document titled "Invention Report" was dated as received. It is not clear how this evidence shows that the invention disclosed by not claimed by '131 is the work of the applicants of the pending application, if the date of invention of '131 is before the date of invention of the pending application. Please refer to MPEP 2136.05.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
